INTRODUCTION

Faust, is a rogue-like game influenced by Dead Cells and Hades, which presents the story of a man driven with the obsession of gaining omnipotence. Faust is a 2-dimensional game created by Pollo-Y-Papa, with a pixel art style and progressively increasing enemy difficulty. Faust has a great variety of enemies that the players could face as well as numerous maps and biomes for fresh playability. Finally, while rogue-like games are single players, Faust has a multiplayer option for the players to choose.

The game consists of 4 main levels who each have 4 smaller levels. Therefore the playthrough feels diverse since it also includes a multitude of different enemies.

The aim of the game is to defeat all the enemies to reach Mephistopheles, the main boss of the game, in hopes of gaining all the knowledge in the world.

In this manual we will explain the installation procedure and show the players the controls of the game as well as other mechanics that are crucial to the game.

MULTIPLAYER

Once Play Game is pressed, you will allowed to:

CREATE ROOM: Create a game with a code of your choosing

JOIN ROOM: Join a game with a specific code

Since Faust is on his journey to ultimate knowledge let's understand the controls. Your primary game device is going to be a computer.

RUNNING: The player can run to the left and right by using the A and D keys

JUMPING: The player can jump upwards using the SPACE key

DASHING: The player can perform a quick dash in the direction they are looking at by clicking the Left ALT key

The Player has 2 attack options they can use to damage and kill enemies

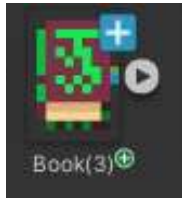

PRIMARY ATTACK: This is done by clicking the Left mouse button

SECONDARY ATTACK: This is done by clicking the Right mouse button and will use up 5 HP from the player when used.

Throughout the map the player will find various platforms that they can jump on or fall from the platform

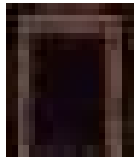

JUMPING: This can be done by simply using the SPACE key

FALLING: This is done by holding the S key*

The player can collect books that they find scattered around the map which will increase their statistics, those being : Movement speed, Attack damage, Attack speed and Max HP.

Picking up a book will also heal the player for 15 HP. The book is collected by pressing on Enter twice.

When playing the game the player needs to pass through doors to move between rooms and levels, to do this the player only needs to touch the door.
